AMERICA TO CALL POWERS TO CONFER ON DISARMAMENT

President Harding Has Initiated Proposal, London Learns

Questions Regarding The Far East To Precede Big Conference

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 10.—Reuter learns that, as the outcome of the exchange of views between Great Britain, United States, Japan and China, which were initiated after the discussion of Far Eastern and Pacific policy by the Dominions representatiives at the Imperial Conference in London, President Harding has initiated a proposal to hold a conference on the limitation of armaments, to be preceded by conversations on the Far East and Pacific question among the Powers most closely interested therein.

The Prime Minister will make a statement on the subject in the House of Commons toworrow.

King George Puts It Up To Harding

London, July 10.—Revelation of the great part played by the King, not only in connection with Ireland but in removing a threatened flaw in Anglo-American relations is made by The Observer which says that the statement made by the Prime Minister in the House of Commons on July 7 to the effect that he could not make any pronouncement regarding the Anglo-Japanese Alliance until replies had been received from the United States, China and Japan, threatened to endanger the project of a Pacific conference, because the American Government could not usefully enter the conference as the result of the British suggestion, which would be derogatory to President Harding's position and which might easily have seemed to mar Americans to be a maneuver in the interests of Japan.

The King and the American Ambassador, the Observer continues, had an earnest and important conversation at the ball given at Buckingham Palace on the evening of July 7 in honor of the King and Queen of the Belgians, following which the Prime Minister's words about "replies from the United States" were deleted from Hansard. Thus it was left to the United States not only to issue a formal invitation to a conference but to propose the terms of reference.

LOST NO CHANCE
(Reuter's Service)

London, July 9.—Reuter learns that the British Government has submitted no formal proposal for a conference regarding the Anglo-Japanese Treaty, the general question of the Pacific, or disarmament, to the United States Government, but it has lost no opportunity of showing that it would welcome such a proposal by the Washington Government.

The President visited the Capitol today, and it is understood that he told the members of the Senate that he favored the Soldiers Bonus Bill.

ADMIRAL STRAUSS DINNER GUEST OF AMERICAN BODIES

Over Hundred Attend Affair Marking Leave Taking Of Naval Chief

More than a hundred persons attended the dinner dance given last night at the Carlton Cafe by the American Chamber of Commerce and the American Association for Admiral Joseph Strauss and Mrs. Strauss. The affair was in the nature of a leave taking as Admiral Strauss is sailing today on his flagship, the U.S.S. Huron.

Dr. S. A. Ransom, President of the American Association, presided at the dinner with Admiral Strauss on his right and Mr. E. S. Cunningham, American Consul-General on his left. Besides the various American officials and their wives and ladies a large number of naval officers from American warcraft in port were present.

At the conclusion of the dinner the single brief address made was by Doctor Ransom who extended the greetings and well wishes of the American community to the visitors, giving at the same time some outline of the services performed by Admiral Strauss in the North Sea while the war was in progress. Dancing followed the dinner.

The U.S.S. Huron, flagship of the Asiatic Fleet, and the U.S.S. Albany are sailing from Shanghai at 4 o'clock this morning. The Huron is going to Chefoo for target practice and battle maneuvers, while the Albany is scheduled to sail for Hankow.

Godown And Content Of Oil And Bean Cake Burn Through Night

Extensive damage was done by a stubborn fire that was discovered shortly after midnight today in a godown of the Wu Fung Oil Mill on Ichang Road between Gordon and Ferry Roads. The blaze started in the rear of the structure which was filled with oil and bean cake and as it spread swiftly through the 200 feet of the length of the building, firemen of the Settlement department after a hard fight brought the blaze under control.

Though the fire was checked and confined to the one building within an hour after the firemen arrived, it continued to smoulder through the night.

Kemal Proves Active Gadfly In Anti-Turkish Ointment

ALLIES HAD ALL FIXED FINE TILL HE BEGAN RAID

Now Porte Is Menaced And Unspeakable Turk Is In Straits Zone

By Bruce Hopper

The unspeakable Turk seems more successful than the turgid Teuton in turning overwhelming defeat into astounding victory.

It is not a year since the Treaty of Sevres announced the long expected crash of the Turkish empire, a slicing of pie at which ceremony England, France and Italy were in beautiful harmony as to their respective spheres of influence. Greece was the eager catspaw to whisk the burning chestnuts from the fire in Anatolia.

All was lovely on paper. The Turk had to go, never to return to the sweet waters of Europe. Hopeful ones even expected to see the crescent torn from its five century perch on Haggia Sophia, and the cross restored to that most glorious dome in eastern Christendom.

WORM TURNS

Today the worm has turned with a swiftness which leaves the world breathless in suspense. The Turk Nationalists are driving the Greeks into Brousa, and thundering at the very gates of Constantinople. Behind the green banners of the Turkish peasantry wave in measureless vista the red flags of Bolshevism, which mark the route across the Caucasus to Moscow.

Mustapha Kemal has rallied around him the entire fighting strength of Turkish Anatolia. His capital at Angora has been for the past year a new Mecca for militant Islam. Anti-Christian hatred has again blazed through Asia Minor, and a dormant, dismembered people has been united by the adversities following invasion.

Kemal himself is a capable statesman, a genius in guerilla warfare, and possessed of that ruthlessness which makes for success in war. To the Moslem world he is no longer a rebel against the Constantinople government, but a patriot defending his country, outwitting the allies, and deceiving even the arch-conspirators at Moscow.

TREATY OF SEVRES

Pandora's box in the Near East, which is opened every few centuries to inflict the world with peril, was not effectually sealed by the Treaty of Sevres, signed August 10, 1920. It was an agreement among the allies as to the partition of Turkey, rather than an understanding between them and the Turks regarding the cradle of war.

The Straits were to be internationalised, and the forts demolished. Gallipoli was to cease to be with the Nationalist, after General Gouraud had wiped out the stain of the massacres at Urfa, Aintab, and Adana. Kemal then was free to throw his entire force against the Brousa front, with the result that the Greeks have lost ground steadily ever since.

When Venizelos was thrown over at the Greek polls last November, repeating the Athenian treatment of the country's ancient saviours, his fate was likened to that of Militiades and Themistocles. The recall of Constantine gave the allies the desired pretext for pursuing their own interests in Asia Minor, Turkish, and the Turks were to be suffered in Constantinople only pending good behavior. Eastern Thrace and Smyrna were turned over to the Greeks, Hedjaz and Armenia were given independence, Syria put under French mandate, and Mesopotamia and Palestine under the British. The Turks were to have a small land force, but neither fleet nor air service. Venizelos pledged his country's resources to carry out the terms of the treaty, and proceeded to push the boundaries of Smyrna into the hinterland.

THEN ENTER KEMAL

Though the emissaries of the stool-pidgeon sultan at Constantinople signed the treaty, Mustapha Kemal had no intention of agreeing to such conditions. He made war on all comers. The French mandate in Syria proved so costly in Christian life that they were eager for a peace settlement, and the result was the virtual scrapping of the Sevres treaty.

REVISION OF TREATY

The revision of the treaty the London conference a few months ago was hailed as a diplomatic victory for France. The former policy of propping up the Sick Man in Constantinople is resumed. The Smyrna district is to remain in definitely under Turkish sovereignty, with allied patrols, and a small Greek garrison in the city. Thrace is to be internationalised, which means partial Turkish control. The muchly prized straits will be under nominal allied control from Gallipoli, but the Turks will have free run of the Sea of Marmora and the Bosphorus. Armenia, whose representative followed the supreme council around the capitals of Europe in vain, is receded to the Turks.

After refusing the first Sevres terms, in spite of the Constantinople government, Kemal now finds even the conditions of the revision insufficient to meet the claims for Turkish sovereignty. His troops are lined up with a narrow stretch of water separating them from Constantinople to enforce his demand for

Paris Press Approves Act Of Government—Asks Belgians To Act

(Reuter's Service)

Leipzig, July 9.—The French delegation and witnesses at the Supreme Court have departed, having been recalled to Paris by their Government. Despite their departure, the trials of von Shack, von Kruska and others continue.

Paris, July 9.—The papers unanimously approve of the recall of the French delegation from Leipzig. They declare that the scandalous parody of justice at Leipzig forces the re-opening of the question of punishment of war criminals.

Leipzig, July 10.—The Court for the trial of war criminals has acquitted Generals von Schack and von Kruska, who were charged with causing an outbreak of typhus at the war-prisoners' camp at Niederzwehsen through neglect, whereby 3,000 French prisoners died.

Brussels, July 9.—The French Ambassador here has requested the Belgian Foreign Office not to send a further delegation to Leipzig.

RICE SITUATION ALMOST NORMAL; PRICE IS HIGH

Local Dealers Urge Upcountry Producers To Ship More To Shanghai

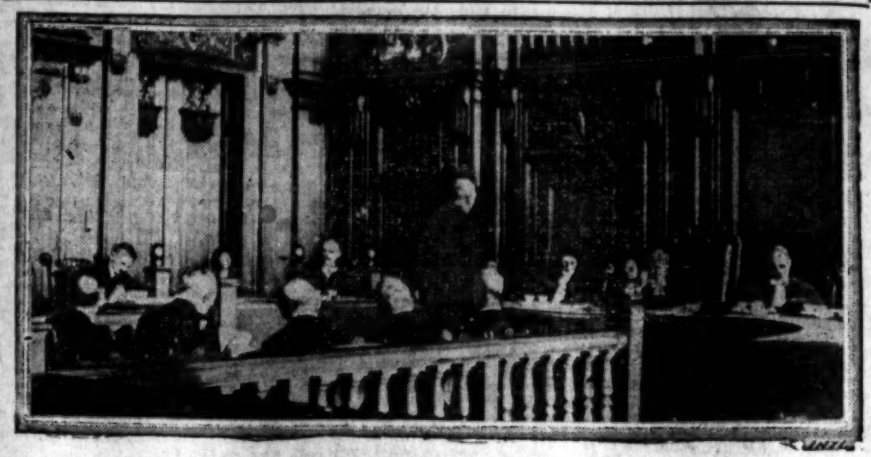
The rice situation was practically back to normal yesterday, though prices were high, ranging from $11 to $12 a picul. All shops were open, though some had not yet become fully restocked.

In view of the high price of the cereal and fearing that delayed shipments might raise it to still higher figures, the Chapei Rice Merchants' Guild has written to agents in the producing districts informing them of the end of the strike and urging them to forward cargo of all qualities with as much speed as possible. To prevent possible raids the Chief of the Water Police has ordered additional protection for the rice boats now in Shanghai.

Steps are being taken by the several rice merchants' organisations for a reopening of the negotiations concerning the new Municipal licensing regulation, and the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce has been requested to act in the matter.

Ten of the local settlement rice shops are contemplating the removal of their shops into Chinese territory in order to avoid the licensing restrictions, according to reports among the rice merchants yesterday.

German War Criminals Sentenced At Leipzig



A remarkable photograph of the interior of the Supreme Court at Leipzig, made during the examination of a German exnoncommissioned officer, Karl Heynen, alleged to have been guilty of cruelty to British prisoners at Recklinghausen Camp, Westphalia. The defendant, Heynen, is standing in the center. This is the first photograph to reach this country picturing incidents in connection with the trials of German war criminals at Leipzig.

Strange Medley Of Life Greets Visitor At Tsingtao

By Elsie McCormick

ONCE, some time before the various delegates met around the peace table and split the big war up into numerous little ones, a New York newspaper opened its columns to hints regarding what should be done to the Kaiser.

Whereupon the readers unlocked their repressed instincts and sent in no end of cozy suggestions involving serpents, cages carpeted in spikes, molten lead massages, and similar methods for expressing social disapproval.

We didn't participate in the contest at the time, but if they would only open it up again we could offer an idea that would win first prize in less time than it takes a Chinese baby to eat a raw cucumber.

Send the Kaiser to a summer resort and let it rain all the time he's there!

Somehow, when we indited a few lines about summer resorts recently, we forget to mention the rain. Our forgetfulness has been rebuked since by a three days' downpour that is still working with the conscientiousness of a schoolteacher about to qualify for a pension.

NOT WATER PROOF

Summer resorts, like shrinkable jersey dresses, were not built for rain. We know it, because we have had experience with both. A rainy day in a summer hotel reminds one of traveling on shipboard.

The chief diversions of the day include faithful attendance at all meals and a leisurely progress down the menu card from the name of the hotel at the top to the day of the week at the bottom; reading all the shaving soap advertisements in decrepit magazines, as well as the accounts of how Mary Smith, formerly the homeliest girl in Oakville, studied dressmaking for two weeks by mail and outclassed Elsie Ferguson; pacing up and down the covered porch for exercise; and joining in the bridge, poker, mah-jong, and solitaire tournaments that have sprouted like California squash all over the premises.

Children are bearing the imprisonment with a bouyancy of spirit that vibrates the ear-drums, the constant possibility of being run down by a tricycle in the halls giving the piquancy of risk to an otherwise unadventurous day.

Summer gowns become bedraggled and wispy in the dank atmosphere, summer hats are worn only indoors, and summer girls dare not go out in their bathing suits for fear of getting them wet. If the rain continues for another day, the party will be about as cheerful as a coroner's jury.

And the mildew grew all around, all around, and the mildew grew all around!

UNLESS IT CLEARS OFF

In case the weather keeps up its present pace, the only bragging that Tsingtao visitors can do when they return is to sing that refrain which really ought to be incorporated in a popular song: "And we slept under blankets every night!"

Our chief consolation lies in the thought that at the other summer resorts weather conditions are probably worse.

About Tsingtao itself we know but little. Viewed from the steamer, it is a stately red and white city set in a rim of tree-covered hills and spread along the edge of a sparkling bay. Seen at close range, it lacks the amount of business activity that the godowns along the shore would lead one to expect. The wide, well-paved streets seem almost deserted.

It is stated in business circles here that the defiection of the Shantung silk trade to Tientsin by the Chinese merchants is responsible for a serious commercial slump.

Though the streets have all been renamed by the Japanese, German signs hang over many of the shops and German merchants still conduct a fair proportion of the business.

GERMANS IN EVIDENCE

There is one pastry shop that sells pretzels and cakes with a Teutonic flavor which no naturalisation papers in the world could disguise. Foreigners speaking many strange tongues congregate there in the evenings for a glass of amber-tinted beer or for a cup of chocolate piled high with bona fide whipped cream. Among the groups at the tables are always several women wearing the hats with turned up brims riding a high pompadour like a rowboat on a wave—hats that label the German hausfrau as mercilessly as a printed placard.

Altogether Tsingtao presents many fascinating aspects—roads that wind under interlaced trees; walks that skirt sandy beaches and jutting rocks; and a strange medley of human life presenting many of what the fiction writer inconsistently calls "types" because they are not typical.

Above it all hangs the intangible consciousness that this stretch of sea, and woods and city caused the diplomats of the world a vast collective headache from which they have not yet recovered.

New York, July 10.—A delegation consisting of ten members of the Japanese Diet, representing all the Japanese political parties, has sailed on board the Cedric for England. The chairman of the delegation, Mr. Hakanishi, in an interview, said that the passage of the Borah resolution by an overwhelming majority was a long step towards world peace.

Cantonese Lose 10,000 Troops

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

The Canton Government is appealing to various organisations of merchants for subscriptions for military expenses.

BRIAND HOPING TO SAVE BANK BY COMPROMISE

French Moral Authority In China At Stake, He Declares

Shanghai Notes Of French Bank To Cash At Par

Outstanding banknotes of the Banque Industrielle de Chine, issued by the Shanghai branch, amounting to $751,928 will be cashed at par, according to a notice published in this morning's press by the Shanghai Bankers' Association.

The announcement follows an agreement between the local bankers' association and the Peking Bankers' Association. The date upon which the notes may be cashed is said to be July 13.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, July 9.—M. Briand in a statement says that the judicial authorities alone can apportion the responsibilities of the Administration and the Banque Industrielle de Chine. The Minister of Justice is already prosecuting a certain newspaper for uttering a forgery in connection with the publication of a telegram signed by M. Leygues, then Minister of Marine, to the French Ambassador at London, regarding the Bank, which was actually signed by M. Philippe Berthelot, Secretary-General to the Foreign Office.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 11.—The Ministry of Finance announces that Banque Industrielle de Chine notes issued in Peking, Tientsin, Hankow and Shanghai will be repayable on July 13. The places at which they will be repaid will be announced later.

Regarding the bank's other obligations, the Ministry has instructed Mr. Chen Lu, the Chinese Minister in Paris, to get into touch with the French Ministry of Finance and to ask it to send representatives to the meeting of Chinese sharenoiders of the bank which will be held shortly in Peking.

Paris, July 10.—Speaking in the Chamber of Deputies, M. Briand, dealing with the question of the Banque Industrielle de Chine, declared that the Government had done everything to avoid any situation arising, the consequences of which would recoil on the moral authority of France in the Far East.

The decision of the Commercial Tribunal on the Bank's request that it should be given the benefit of a compromise settlement would be published on the 25th instant, he said. Meanwhile the Government would pursue its efforts in that connection with some hopes of success. The Government knew that the maintenance of French interests in the Far East largely depended on a solution of this question.

Negotiations were progressing with China with a view to the continuance of the undertaking, which would render great services to French interests, but it was a question of private enterprise, and the means at the disposal of the Government consisted in appealing to the sense of solidarity and in using a certain amount of moral pressure. There was good

HAPPY TO SEE YOU ANY DAY SAYS PREMIER TO DE VALERA

Irish President Accepts And Has Ordered Hostilities To End

GOV'T ENDS RAIDS

Smuts To Have High Place When Pact Is Considered

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 11.—Mr. Lloyd George has telegraphed to Mr. Eamonn de Valera, as follows: "I will be happy to see you, and any colleagues you wish to bring, at Downing Street any day this week."

London, July 9.—The King received Lord Midleton in audience today upon his return from Dublin.

London, July 9.—It is officially announced in Dublin that Mr. Eamonn de Valera has decided to accept Mr. Lloyd George's invitation to attend a conference in London, and has instructed his supporters to cease from attacks on the Crown Forces and civilians, to prohibit the use of arms and to cease from military maneuvers, to abstain from interference with public and private property, to prevent any action likely to cause a disturbance of the peace and to cooperate in providing an atmosphere in which peaceful discussions may be possible.

The Government has ordered the cessation of military and police raids, the restriction of military activity to support of the police in their civil duties, the removal of restrictions and suspension of the despatch of reinforcements. The functions of the police in Dublin will be carried on by the Metropolitan Police.

London, July 10.—According to the Sunday Express, it is expected that Lloyd George will meet Mr. Eamonn de Valera within the next few days, and the Cabinet is determined that no time shall be lost in the present effort to reach a settlement.

The paper declares that General Smuts, "who has done so much to create a hopeful atmosphere," will take a prominent part in the negotiations if the Irish representatives agree.

Lord Derby's insistence "that we must be prepared to make sacrifices, even to the extent of giving full financial control to Ireland, but with restrictions as regards the national debt, the Army and Navy, to secure a settlement," indicates that a new spirit is abroad, the paper adds. It further reports that Professor John MacNeill and Mr. Michael Collins (two Sinn Feiners who were elected to the Imperial Parliament) will accompany Mr. de Valera to London.

London, July 10.—The following proclamation by Mr. Eamonn de Valera to his supporters is significant:

"During the truce each soldier and citizen must regard himself as the custodian of the nation's honor. Your discipline must prove that this is the struggle of an organised nation. In the negotiations initiated, your representatives will do their utmost to secure a just and peaceful termination of the struggle, but history—and particularly our history—and the character of the issue to be decided are a warning against undue confidence. An unbending determination to endure all that may still be necessary and fortitude such as you have shown in all your recent sufferings may be required.

"These alone will lead to the desired peace. Should force be resumed against our nation, you must be ready on your part once more to resist. Thus alone will you secure a final abandonment of force and the acceptance of justice as arbiter."

London, July 11.—Disturbances at Belfast yesterday in the Sinn Fein districts resulted in at last 10 persons being killed and 100 wounded.

Belfast, July 10.—A street 'battle' began here at 11:30 p.m. last night, with an attack upon the ordinary curfew police motor-lorry. Fighting continued fiercely until 5 o'clock this morning and was resumed intermittently until this afternoon. The death roll is now stated to be 14.

BOLSHEVIKS PLAN FABIAN CAMPAIGN

Would Draw Whites Outside Japanese Zone And Then Attack

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 11.—The American Embassy states that President Harding has definitely invited Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan to participate in a conference on the limitation of armaments to be held at Washington upon an arranged date.

In issuing the invitation President Harding pointed out that the limitation of armaments has a close relation to the Pacific and Far Eastern problems, and he therefore suggested that the Powers especially interested therein should consider all matters bearing on their solution, with a view to reaching a common understanding as regards Far Eastern principles and policies. China has also been invited to participate in the discussions relating to the Far Eastern problems.

Reuter learns that Mr. Lloyd George has communicated on this subject with President Harding and also with Japan and China, and that it is confidently anticipated that beneficial results will follow President Harding's step.

reason to hope for a satisfactory solution.

The Premier finally paid a tribute to the Chinese banks and the Chinese Government, which had given immediate proof of admirable solidarity, and undertaken certain obligations.

The Peking Chinese Bankers' Association has circulated a notice to the effect that the notes of the Banque Industrielle de Chine will be paid at par by members of the association beginning today.

Creditors of the bank in Peking have organised and appointed two Chinese lawyers, Ling Hsin-kwei and Wu Kwan-wu, to gather all available statistics concerning the creditors' interests with the view to placing the matter before the French Government.

To Uphold French Prestige In China

The Commissioner of Foreign Affairs, Mr. C. F. Hsu, yesterday received a cablegram from Mr. Chen Lu, the Chinese Minister to Paris, saying that the French Government was doing everything to uphold its financial prestige in China by formulating relief measures for the Banque Industrielle de Chine. Shareholders of the bank will meet in Paris on July 25 to devise the necessary means of relief.

Mme. Taung Sung-sz sat sewing in a strategic position just within the doors of the Taung domicile on Range Road. While thus engaged she observed a shadow fall across the threshold and noted a figure slipping through the door and silently mounting the stairs.

Mme. Taung, mindful of the fact that there were no rear exits to the place, sat placidly and sewed. Presently there was a soft plunk at the foot of the staircase and she took casual notice of the fact that her best bed quilt was heaped there on the floor. Then came the silent figure again and bore the quilt through the entrance. Mme. Taung was about to rise and remark, when the figure, shuttle-like, again insinuated itself into the house and once more scaled the stairs.

Mme. Taung took up a still more strategic position. And when the soft footed one descended this time, bearing Mme. Taung's most prized zinc teapot, the lady of the household blockaded the passage and demanded reasons for this informal call.

"I am looking for a man named Wong," said the person thus addressed, later classified as Wong Nyi-dzung.

Mme. Taung regarded this as unpardonably irrelevant, if not actually evasive of the issue, and the constable on the corner agreed with her. The court lined up with the majority and Wong is now interned for two weeks.

ENCORE!

Waung Yoong-lok was so indiscreet as to pick the pocket of Ts Chung-zen on Fokien Road while a policeman was looking. The purse, it so happened, was empty at the time, but Waung was spared this painful discovery until it came out in the evidence at the Mixed Court yesterday.

The prisoner had extenuating circumstances to submit.

He had only got out of jail that morning, he explained, and consequently was in need of money.

Waung is in again for ninety days.

UP POLE; DOWN AGAIN

The upward progress of Ying Siau-mau had been halted when he was only half-way up an electric light pole standing hard against the wall of a Chinese home in an alleyway off North Szechuen Road. The hour was dawn and the impediment to Ying's ascent was the C.P.C. whose beat chanced to ramify through that alleyway.

In court yesterday the Magistrate requested reasons for the climb.

"I was looking for work," said Ying.

Still, he didn't seem appreciative when they sent him to the work house for a month.

Mixed Court Jottings

When the man convicted of abducting her had been sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment yesterday, an 18-year-old girl stood up in court and hysterically implored the Magistrate to send her to jail with the prisoner. She protested that she would not go home to her parents and had to be forcibly removed from the court room and sent to the Door of Hope. She insisted that she went away with the accused of her own accord.

Because he had been swindled of all his funds, a Cantonese student, en route to his home rom Peking, went to a lodging house at 301 Hankow Road early Saturday morning and took poison. He was discovered on Sunday, and sent to hospital and yesterday appeared in the Mixed Court. His first story to the police was that he had lost $50,000, but he stated in court that he had been cheated out of $800 by a man whom he only knew as Lee. He was ordered sent to the Canton Guild, with the request that this organisation send him to his home.

The Chinese accused of murdering Sikh trooper No. 542 on Thibet Road June 17, and of attempting to murder a Chinese constable at the New World the same evening, was charged yesterday and remanded for trial before the Italian Assessor. The man was arrested in Hankow by the British police last week. He will be placed on trial at the same time as the eight men already in custody, charged with participating in the rioting which preceded the shooting at the New World.

Mr. P. M. Linebarger appeared in court yesterday to apply for a rehearing in the case of four of the students convicted in connection with the anarchist disturbance which occurred at Hongkew Park during the Olympic games. Counsel submits that the defendants previously were unable to communicate with their relatives, who live at a distance, in order to obtain legal defense and also that there is new evidence to be given. There will be a hearing on the application next Monday.

An inquest was held yesterday over the body of a 13-year-old boy who was run down by a motor car on Yangtszepoo Road Sunday. Testimony of witnesses was that the lad ran into the path of the car from behind a tramcar. The verdict exonerated the driver of the car and the owner of the machine stated that he would pay $100 to the boy's family.

An office boy employed by Silas and Co., 11 Ezra Road, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment yesterday for theft of $25 worth of scissors and other property belonging to his employers. A coolie who disposed of the loot for him was sentenced to one month and two men charged with receiving the goods were dismissed with a caution.

A number of opium cases of minor importance were before the Mixed Court yesterday. A man and a woman convicted of running a den at 1541 Kashing Road were fined $30 each, proprietors of places at 463 North Honan Road and 1520 Kashing Road were fined $20 each and fourteen customers arrested in the three places were offered the option of $3 fines or three days each in jail. One of the latter offered as proof of the fact that he could not have been smoking opium the announcement that he was a coolie employed by the Municipality. He did not specify whether the abstinence was a financial or a moral matter. While searching a house at 1346 East Seward Road for a man wanted on a larceny charge, Hongkew detectives discovered a quantity of opium and morphia. Two men were charged in connection with the find and were remanded for trial Friday, being allowed bail in the amount of $100.

Defamation Suit Up For Hearing In American Court

Defamation of character and financial loss provided the basis of a unique petition considered in the United States Court for China yesterday. The document was filed by a Russian woman, Mrs. M. G. Rabenow, at present a resident of Shanghai. It named as defendants Mrs. A. C. Grimes, of Tientsin, and Dr. Andrew N. Woods, of Peking, and asked $5,000 damages.

The petition alleged that in August of 1920, while Mrs. Rabenow was at Peitaho seeking a position in the American School at Toenju, near Peking, the defendants made disparaging remarks about her which eventually influenced the president of the school to reject her application for a position. The remarks, the plaintiff alleged, were intended to imply that she was "immoral" and "unfit to assist in the education of children." She objected also to being classed as a "Russian refugee."

Yesterday's proceedings comprised a hearing of a motion of the defense for a continuance of the hearing for the preparing of a defense. The motion was allowed. The hearing probably will be held in Tientsin.

.E.Douty, Representing U.S. Silk Interests Here, To Open Testing House

arrying Out Of Project Last Year Of American Mission—Institution First Of Its Kind In China

As one of the results of the visit Shanghai last year of an Ameri- silk mission Mr. D. E. Douty of w York is here to open a testing se for the United States Testing mpany of which he is General nager.

The United States Testing Com- y is the official testing organisa- n for the Silk Association of erica. It has testing houses for conditioning and testing of silk New York, Paterson, N. J., iladelphia, Pa., and New Bed- d, Mass.

AIMS SET FORTH

A statement that has been issued Mr. Douty in connection with opening of a testing house in anghai is as follows:

The Shanghai Testing House of United States Testing Co., Inc. being established at the earnest uest and with the co-operation the Steam Silk Filature and coon Merchants Guild of Sze- uan, Chekiang and Anhwei Pro- ces. The funds necessary to vide the equipment and main- n the House until it can become f-sustaining have been secured subscription to the stock of the mpany by members of the Steam k Filature and Cocoon Merchants ild, the Chinese Chamber of Com- erce, and members of the Silk sociation of America. The Shang- Testing House will have exactly same position in the Testing mpany's organisation as any of other houses, and the Chinese scribers become regular stock- lders of the Company with the me standing as any other stock- lder.

"The management of the Shang- House is vested in the officers the Company, and there will be American Manager, with Ameri- ns in charge of the principal de- rtments. The staff will have me Chinese who are graduates om American Textile or Engineer- g Schools and Chinese young en will be trained to perform e tests and prepare the reports the work."

LONG FELT WANT

The opening of a testing house ill fill a long-felt need of Shang- i's silk market. All of the im- rtant silk centers of the world pect China have testing houses determine the quantity and ality of raw silk bought and sold. me of these testing houses are erated by governments, as is the nditioning house in Yokohama; me are operated by Chambers of mmerce as in Lyons, Roubaix d Tourcoing, France, Bradford d Manchester, England, and some associations, as in Italy.

The plan to open a testing house China has been under considera- on for a long time and when the merican Silk Mission visited hanghai last year the filature men roposed the organisation of a hinese-American company to carry rough the project. This plan at ngth was abandoned for the rger project of making the Shang- i house one of the units of the nited States Testing Company.

The Shanghai testing house will nder an international service and s facilities will be available on qual terms to all nationals engaged the raw silk business in Shang- i. It is stated as a matter of ct that while the United States esting Company is an American ncern chartered under the laws the state of New York, it is in ality virtually an international rganisation. Its stock is held by rms and individuals having con- ections in every silk center in the orld and it has on its board of irectors representatives of Ameri- an, Swiss, French and Japanese rms.

FULL EQUIPMENT

The Shanghai testing house will ive particular attention to quality ests and will be equipped to make ll of the standard and tentative tandard tests adopted by the Silk ssociation.

Russians Shell Chinese Steamer; 3 Dead, 8 Hurt

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, July 11.—It is report- ed that at noon on July 8, a Russian Far Eastern Republic gunboat shelled the steamer Hangchow at the mouth of the Sungari River. The Hangchow was transporting Chinese troops to Suiyuanhsien, on the Amur. Three were killed and eight wounded.

The commander of the gun- boat was acting on instructions received from the Chita Govern- ment not to allow armed forces to enter the Amur from the Sun- gari and alleges that the Hang- chow ignored his signal.

The Captain of the Hangchow on the other hand claims that the ship was allowed to proceed and was then shelled.

The Hangchow is damaged and aground at the mouth of the Sungari and the dead and wound- ed have been transported to Fuhasusu.

VLADIVOSTOK DUE FOR OVERTHROW OF GOVERNMENT

Partisan Bands Of Both White And Red Start New Offensives

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, July 6.—The situa- tion at Grodekovo and in the Maritime Province remains most obscure, and it is generally believed here that the positions of both the Vladivostok present Government and Semenoff are far from being strong.

It is rumored that military operations have begun between the Reds and Whites in the Habarovsk and Blagoveschensk regions but it is thought that the White regular troops are not taking any part in them, and that these rumors concern partisan detachments like Boch- kareff's and others.

The Hunghutzes are still most active on the Eastern line of the Chinese Eastern Railway. A detachment of Chinese soldiers sent to M. Kovalsky's concession near Imianpo station has been outwitted by the Hunghutzes, who managed to cut off the Chinese vanguard, consisting of some infantry and an armored train, from the main force by burning two big railway bridges in the rear of the vanguard and taking down the telegraph posts. The Hunghutzes have destroyed many buildings on the line be- longing to the concession and threaten to destroy the whole line.

The Railway Administration has paid $55,000 ransom for the railway agents who were cap- tured by the Hunghutzes on the concession two weeks ago and who have only just been set freed.

Telegrams have been received by the Railway's Head Office from many places on the line, at which the workmen refuse to repair the damage done to the line by the Hunghutzes unless a strong and efficient guard ac- companies them during their work. The agents declare that they will be forced to quit their posts unless something is done to improve the situation and make work possible. The Rail- way Administration has again applied to the Chinese Com- mand, pointing out the necessity for taking urgent and drastic measures.

Harbin, July 6.—The American mission from Chita, including Dr. Abbot and Colonel Davis, arrived here yesterday at 9 p.m., on its wa to Tokio.

Earl's Body Found Adrift Near Yacht

Accident Is Theory Since No Signs Of Violence Were Discovered

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 10.—It was found this morning that the Earl of Craven had mysteriously disappeared from his yacht at Cowes. His dead body was picked up from the sea later in the day and bore no marks of violence. It is thought that his Lordship must have fallen over- board accidentally at midnight. The deceased peer was 52 years of age, and married in 1883 a daughter of Mr. Bradley Martin, the New York financier.

SQUEEZE PLAY MYSTERY BAFFLES UMPS AND ALBANY; SHANGHAI LOSES AND WINS

Shanghai Twice Squeezes Into Lead But Navy Couldn't See It; Cruiser Wins 4-3; First Game Goes To Locals In 6-4 Score Over Huron

A perfectly good squeeze play which scored two runners twice in Sunday's game between Shanghai and the cruiser Albany, but which was disallowed after a Navy protest because the umpires were no better versed in the technicalities of rules than were the Albany, lost the local team its chance to finish the day's play with a perfect score of two wins. The first game was won from the Huron 6-4; the second went to the Albany, 4-3.

The disputed play which was disallowed twice and which would have put Shanghai one run in the lead and probably won the game, was a simple squeeze. It was put over twice, each time scoring Maloney and Smith and twice it was disallowed. Finally, after the runners were ruled back to their bases the second time, the attempt to squeeze was abandoned, and the side was retired in order.

It was in the fifth inning that the play was made. Maloney and Smith had singled and advanced to second and third on a sacrifice fly. Orr, pitching for the Navy, was in the box, both feet on the rubber, posed and ready to pitch to Wilhoit. Maloney started for home and Smith for third with Orr's first sign at delivery. Orr hurried his throw, believing that Wilhoit would step away from the plate. But Cy laid down a bunt and Maloney and Smith crossed the pan. A big howl ensued. The navy men took the argument that Orr was not pitching to the batter, but to the catcher to stop an advancing baserunner. Umpire Roberts decided in the sailors' favor. He ruled the base runners back to their bases, and Wilhoit again to bat.

As soon as Orr entered the box again, and got "set" in his customary position, and facing the batter, the two base runners started the squeeze again. Maloney was covering ground fast. He actually had to slow up at the plate to give Wilhoit time for the bunt, and Smith was close behind. The two runs went over again.

At the second attempt to force the squeeze Howard, the Albany catcher undertook to get up to the pan to receive the ball at the plate. He too thought that Wilhoit had not the privilege to hit. When the players were all returned a second time to their starting point the squeeze was abandoned. Wilhoit flied out and Nelson fanned.

Rules, and the lack of their understanding caused another misunderstanding in the seventh, the last inning. Maloney drove out his fourth single. He was all in, with the heat. He quit the game, putting Pruitt off the first base coach line in to run for him. The navy objected to the substitution. When it was explained that Maloney was going out of the game, not merely asking a runner, the navy took the stand that a coach could not be used in play, and when Maloney refused to go back into the game he was called out.

The first game was comparatively easy for Shanghai. Wilhoit scored the first run for his team by stretching a base on balls into a home run. He trotted to first on the pass, and while the Navy men were gathering up the ball and cruising back into their positions, he stole second. The throw Draper to Larkin was high and the ball went into the outfield. Wilhoit came home on the error. Five more in the fifth cinched the game. Six clean hits accounted for them.

The Navy got two in the first frame on two doubles and a muffed fly in left. Another came in the fifth when Scymanski singled, stole two bases and scored when Hoag threw to second to get Weaver. A double by Larkin followed by a boot by Bills in the sixth gave the total of 4 runs.

SECRET TRAINING AT HAVERSTRAW

Roughtown Champ Dodges In And Out Of Mob Of One Million Fans

BY "BUGS" BAER

Dear Friend: Went up to see your champ pulling and hauling at Haverstraw and want to state that he would be a push-over for any infant between his second tooth and the measles. Training at Haverstraw is one of the big mistakes of Gink's small erroneous career. The town of Greasestain was the logical blot on the map for your hokey to leap from meal to meal. Greasestain is so tough that burglars crawl through on their knees and grizzly bears walk up to be measured for cages.

Your offishialy,
GLENN AND HANK,
Greasestain, Col.

We pass up that letter like a landlord overlooking rent day. Greasestain was eliminated from the census tournament in 1892, when Gink Fowler reached for a slab of cement pie in the railroad station and elbowed the Town Hall out of joint. It was a tough town, but not so tough as Guzzleburgh, where it took four wars to break up a pinochle game. Nelson Eddy writes in from Philadelphia that his town is so rough and granulated that nothing but one-legged burlesque shows play there. Plenty tough, but not so crime-splashed as the small but thumbprinted borough of Aberration, New Mexico. Aberration was but one short scamper away from Roughtown on the Panic-American Railroad.

Everybody in Aberration thought robbery was a one-syllable word. They called for their eggs with two-minute fuses, and used mortar syrup on their wheat cakes.,

The champ slapped in his first day at Haverstraw in secret training. He slept with his shoes on and then plunged into a bath up to his wrists. Greatly refreshed by the novelty, he threw in a hearty breakfast of softboiled snail shells, a stack of toasted poker chips and then avoided the check by clever footwork. The champ employs the napkin-around the-neck defense at all meals.

Then he took on Trambeezer, his Graeco-Turkish waiter, for six more meals and sparred lightly with a heavy menu. He laughed into a couple of dishes of goulash, following up by shadow-boxing with pie on the knife.

The champion only eats one meal a day, but it takes him all day. The champ's camp is free to the public. He rests on Sundays and only charges admission on weekdays.

After eating a few more rounds with The Glutt, the champ rested up on a high hat full of ice cream and macaroons. He tore through the meal with both hands and then worked his way back. He is very thoughtful about his family, and wires home for money every day. His favorite literature is alphabetical building blocks. He also plays the nickel piano very well on borrowed jitneys.

Although no one would look for artistic temperament in a man who has fought all his life, yet the Roughtown champion dodges work with the futuristic fervor of a Greenwich Villager.

HURON BATTERS SHOW AVERAGE OF ONLY 237

But Two Men Of Flagship's Lineup Showed Better Than 300; Lamke High Man

The flagship Huron team, which finished the Summer baseball season in Shanghai against the local baseball club on Sunday, shows a team batting average of .237, and two men hitting the ball better than a .300 gait, according to a statement put out yesterday by the sporting editor of the Fleets weekly journal, the Asiatic News.

The summary of averages does not include all players who have worked here against Shanghai, men like Gage, O'Barr, Meade and Heuble, who, the writer is confident, figured well up in the totals. The table included all games played here, including Far Eastern Open Games when the flagship opposed the Philippines, and games against other Navy teams.

The Asiatic News offers the averages as follows:

SPIRITED COMPETITION SEEN AMONG LAWN BOWLERS OUT FOR OPEN CHAMPIONSHIPS

Rinks Captained By Aitkenhead And Ross Young Beat Smyth And Bowerman Crews; Yangtsze Club Loses; Many Close Matches In Singles

BY THE SHOT

Quite a number of partisans of both clubs were on the banks of the Recs green to witness the match between the rinks skipped by Ross Young and Bob Bowerman. I had looked forward to a very closely contested game but events proved otherwise.

The Hongkew birds seemed to find the heavy state of the green to their liking, as after leading 3-1 at the fourth end they commenced to bag fours and a six bringing the score to 24-3 in their favor and practically put the game on ice.

The Recs team from this point played a much better game but could not get within striking distance. For the winners Chilvers was the star turn while Jim Marshgreen was in the picture all through the game. Ross Young was as steady as the proverbial rock as skip and on one occasion when the Recs lay three he drew the pack with a beauty and gave his side four points.

MacAlister was right off his game and could do nothing right.

The Recs team were all adrift for the first 10 ends but after this point they seemed to improve.

R. Aitkenhead's rink did well to defeat their clubmates skipped by Joe Smyth and although the latter scored at 10 out of the 21 ends the crack rink won quite comfortably.

PAIRS MATCHES

The match between Manwaring and Wallace and Banham and Turnbull resulted in a win for the former by two points while Bowerman and Eek lost a peculiar game against Habecost and Chilvers.

Leading at the 18th end by one point they mutually agreed to decide the match by playing one end and calling the existing score "all square." With the jack hardly visible in the darkness Chilvers scored one point and so enters the next round.

SINGLES MATCHES

The creame de la creame of the first round was the match between Aitkenhead and Burnside and the Hongkew greens were well attended to witness the match.

The game was one worthy of the calibre of these old opponents and the spectators left the park well satisfied. Although Bob was bowling splendidly his opponent gradually crept away from him and looked all over a winner at about the 16th end.

Hereabouts Burnside struck a bad patch and allowed the whole of his opponent's woods to count and brought the scores almost level. From this point to the end it was a ding dong struggle and when the game was ultimately called Bob had won by 21-19.

Macgregor had an exercise canter when defeating Cole by 21-12, but quite a different game was the one between Wooten and Shaw. The former is a very promising bowler and after a neck and neck game managed to give Jack Shaw his conge by five points—quite a little surprise packet. Well done Wooten and may you go a long way further.

Ackerman looked all over a winner when leading Stormes by 15 points to six but a series of long ends proved his undoing and he retired beaten by 21-16.

THE SUMMARY

Rink		Rink
Aitkenhead's	21	Smyth's	16
Ross Young's	29	Bowerman's	19

PAIRS

Manwaring and Wallace beat Banham and Turnbull by 2 pts.

Chilvers and Habecost beat Bowerman and Eek by 1 pt.

SINGLES

Stormes	21	Ackerman	16
Wooten	21	Shaw	15

The Yangtzepoo team went down to the big club by two points on Sunday after a hard game.

Chinese Chauffeur Burned To Death In Garage Blaze

A Chinese chauffeur, employed by Mr. Phillips, 17 Wong Ka Shaw Gardens, was burned to death Saturday night when fire broke out in the garage. The theory submitted at the inquest yesterday was that the chauffeur had gone to the place to steal gasoline and that a lighted match or lantern caused the blaze.

The fire was reported to Central station shortly before 9:30 p.m. and the Brigade was promptly in attendance. After the outbreak had been extinguished the charred body of the victim was found in the upper portion of the garage, where the man had evidently fled from the flames. Indications all were that the fire started on the ground floor. A large drum which had contained gasoline was found at the foot of the stairs and Mr. Phillips testified that it was not his custom to store fuel in the place and that he had not seen the drum downstairs when he was last in the place. The chauffeur had run the car into the garage shortly after 7 o'clock and then returned to his home, which he left again an hour or so later, not stating where he was going. The verdict at the inquest was to the effect that deceased met his death through burns as a result of misadventure.

BRITISH TENNIS

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 9.—J. B. Gilbert has been selected to fill the vacancy in the British lawn tennis team which is to take part in the Davis Cup competition, due to the inability of Cecil Campbell to accept the invitation. Gilbert is a left-hand player who possesses an attractive style and sound all-round methods. He won the "All-England Plate" at the recent Wimbledon tournament, defeating Fisher in the final by two sets to one.

Seabright, N. J., July 10.—In an International University lawn-tennis match played here yesterday, Princeton University beat a representative team from Oxford and Cambridge by 5 matches to 2.

Tientsin Polo Club Challenges Peking; May Play July 17

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, July 8.—The Peking Polo Club has received a challenge from the Tientsin Polo team to play a match for the cup won by Peking last Summer, the match to take place at Peking on Sunday, July 17. Tientsin's challenge is receiving the favorable consideration of the Peking committee, and the match will probably be played on the date mentioned in spite of the fact that four of Peking's best players, Captain Munjon, and Messrs. Mayers, Martin and Newbigging, will be unavailable owing to absence from town or illness.

Mr. R. C. Allen and Lieutenant Colonel Smallwood are certainties for the Peking team in the coming match, and the other two places on the side will be filled from Major Philoon and Messrs. Lucas, Vaes and one or two other likely candidates. While the team will not be at full strength, every member of it can be depended upon to ride hard and well and to give a good account of himself.

The Tientsin four will, it is stated here, be chosen from Messrs. Patterson, Eckford, Roy Davis, Whitamore, Way and Major Kirkpatrick. It is believed here that the final Tientsin four will be better than last year's and that Peking will have to play exceedingly well to beat it.

An invitation has been received here from the Shanghai Polo Club requesting Peking to send a four to Shanghai to compete for the Championship of North China later in the Summer. The matter is now under discussion by Peking polo players, and it is hoped that a team can be sent to Shanghai. Some of the Tientsin players have offered to lend their mounts to help out the Peking team, but it is expected that, owing to the great cost of shipping ponies to Shanghai, the Peking team will use Shanghai mounts if it plays at Shanghai at all.

Japanese Dead Slayer Unknown

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Vladivostok, July 10.—At a special session of the Cossack Conference, on the third instant, it was resolved to deprive Semenoff of the title of "Ataman of all the Cossacks." The Government has broken off all relations with Semenoff.

According to a despatch from Nikolsk-Ussurissk, one Japanese interpreter has been killed and one Japanese sentry wounded by unknown assailants.

A Habarovsk message states that the Bolsheviks have formulated a fixed plan of campaign against the troops of the Maritime Government. This consists in maintaining a passive attitude until the latter attack, when the Reds must retreat to the Bikin district. This will draw the Whites outside the area occupied by the Japanese, whereupon a decisive blow will be dealt against the former.

The Partisans in the southern part of the Maritime Province, in the districts of Vladivostok, Nikolsk-Ussurissk and Shkotow, will act in case of necessity against the Whites, while maintaining strict neutrality towards the Japanese.

The chief of the militia stationed at Ussuri Station, Korenieff by name, has been captured by the Reds.

Lieut.-General Lord Cavan represented Great Britain. The United States was also represented, and there were also present the Mayors and members of the Municipal Councils of prominent English towns which have "adopted" a number of the ruined Somme villages.

Hunghutzes Attack Train Near Harbin

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, July 10.—A passenger train between Harbin and Pogrichnaia was fired on by Hunghutzes not far from Ajiche Station, and only the presence of mind of the engine-driver, who put on increased speed, saved the passengers.

The Hunghutzes are gradually evacuating the timber concessions, and drawing nearer to Harbin and other populated centers. Some railwaymen have been forced to leave their posts, and the situation has become very serious. A conference of the Chinese command has passed a resolution, calling attention to the necessity for reinforcing the troops in the railway zone.

INVADE MONGOLIA FROM FIVE CITIES

Chang Tso-lin Tells Peking Of Plans—Uses Prince As Commissioner

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 8.—According to a report received by the Government from General Chang Tso-lin, the Mongolian expedition is being mobilised at five centers, namely—Kalgan, Chahar, Jehol, Hulungbaer and Lianyuan. In the earlier stages columns will march independently from each of these centers. The whole expedition will consist of: The 1st Brigade of the 1st Division, commanded by Colonel Chi; the 16th Brigade, commanded by Colonel Pao Teh-shan; the 28th Division, commanded by General Hsi Chin-chun; the 29th Division, commanded by General Tsai Ting-chu; the 17th Brigade, commanded by General Chang Kuei-mu; the 25th Brigade, commanded by General Kan Chow-hsi and the 1st Brigade of the 27th Division. General Chang says he will go to the front himself.

General Hsi Yu and Mr. Ta Show, who attended the Mongolian conference at Mukden, have returned to Peking. They report that General Chang Tso-lin has appointed Prince Talhan, the Doyen of the Princes of the Eastern Clans, as Special Pacification Commissioner. Prince Talhan will be attached to the Mongolian Expeditionary Force.

25,000 Strikers In Kobe Parade

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Kobe, July 10.—The largest labor demonstration ever held in Western Japan passed off today without incident and without interference from the police.

Thirty-five thousand strikers, including several hundred from Osaka, marched to the Kawasaki dockyards, thence to those of the Mitsubishi Company and finally to the Hyogo branch of the Kawasaki yards, bearing flags and singing labor songs.

The Kobe Chamber of Commerce has offered to mediate in the dispute, but the strikers have refused.

Death And Madness Follow Heat Wave Afflicting America

(Reuter's Service)

New York, July 10.—The heat wave which at present prevails throughout the United States is almost unbearable, owing to the great humidity of the atmosphere. Many deaths have resulted from sunstroke in all the large cities, especially New York. Owing to the crowded condition of the tenements, the poor are sleeping out of doors on the beaches and in the parks. Children in bathing suits are flocking to the fire-stations, where they are given shower-baths in the streets by means of the fire hose. Many persons have become insane as the result of the heat, and a number have been killed through falling off the roof, where they had been trying to sleep.

EUROPE AFFLICTED

London, July 11.—Like the United States, a large part of Europe is at present sweltering under a heat wave, the effects of which have been aggravated by a long drought which has had a very serious effect on the crops. In addition to deaths from sunstroke and drowning yesterday, numerous fires occurred and thousands of acres of grass, and heath land are burning.

The temperature was over 91 degrees in the shade in Paris yesterday and the drought in the north of France is said to be the most severe in the last half century. Paris is economising in water, but no shortage is threatened at present. The situation in the provinces however is becoming serious. For example, water is being sold at one franc per pailfull in the Avesnes region.

Very violent thunderstorms however are reported from the south of France and hailstones as big as walnuts have caused havoc amongst the crops and vines, fruit and flowers. Several deaths have occurred through lightning.

Germans Will Pay Chinese Expenses

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 9.—The Chinese Government has decided that for the present the expenses of the Chinese Legation at Berlin shall be defrayed from the sums which Germany has agreed to pay to China for the cost of the internment of Germans resident in China during the war.

Afghan Envoy To Thank Chinese For Protection

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 10.—Afghanistan is sending a representative to Peking, via Sinkiang, where he will be received by General Yang Tseng-hsin, the Tuchun.

Ostensibly the delegate's mission is to thank the Chinese Government for the protection afforded to Afghans in China.

Changsha Consul Will Turn Over 2 Tons Of Drug

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 10.—The American Legation has requested the Maritime Customs to take over the two tons of opium recently seized at Changsha, with a view to its destruction.

The case has presented many difficulties, owing to local Chinese official cognisance of the trade that was being carried on by the Chinese under the shelter of the American flag.

Turk Kemal Is Fly In Ointment

complete control of the old capital and the Dardenelles, and domination of Thrace and Smyrna.

SOVIET NIGHTMARE

Kemal's first diplomatic move, the possibilities of which loom like a nightmare over the sleep of the allies, was the treaty with Moscow, signed December 1919. Both parties distrust each other in this strange pact, but Kemal continues to draw gold, supplies and munitions from Bolshevik Russia.

The hurry of the allies to propitiate Kemal, which caused them to revise the treaty to the detriment of the Greeks, can be traced to the fear of Bolshevism. Kemal plays a strong hand by waving the red flag whenever he makes a summary demand. Lenine regards Anatolia as the natural avenue to resume trade with the world, as the Baltic is closely watched, and Constantinople even if taken, would prove useless because of the strong allied fleets in the Mediterranean.

Should Kemal link up with Trotsky in a military way the Bolsheviks would get their feet on the shores of the Mediterranean, and the world wide program for communism would be resumed. The Moslems are not actually in tune with soviet ideas, but the threat is proving useful in bargaining with the allies and Greeks.

The most tragic picture in the Near East is the failure of the political laboratory experiments in the Caucasus. Major-General Harbord's unfavorable report on Armenia clinched America's disinclination to meddle with mandates. The territory assigned to Armenia has been returned to the Turks by the treaty revision. The Bolsheviks captured and occupy Georgia, and are therefore speaking neighbors with the Turk Nationalists.

NOW KNOCKS AT GATES

The latest reports show Kemal at Ismid, within the Zone of the Straits, and almost within cannon distance of Constantinople. The British have tried to maintain a strict neutrality in the Turko-Greek conflict, but have informed Kemal that an attack on Constantinople would be equivalent to a declaration of war on Great Britain. British and Greek fleets are patrolling the Bosphorus and the Black sea to prevent the Bolsheviks from landing munitions on the pontus coast.

Efforts have been made for the last two months to conciliate the Greeks and Turks, but the Greeks refused under the conditions, and the Turks demand for their full program. The possibility of other nations being embroiled is shown by the Rumania offer to send 15,000 troops to aid in the defence of Constantinople. The French and the British are at variance as to the proper policy for pacifying the Near East, as they are in Silesia. French opinion is that the British effort in the Near East is the "greatest imperialism in history."

CONQUERORS

Constantinople, the New Rome, has felt the iron tread of many conquerors in the past. It rivals Athens, Rome and Jerusalem in influence on human affairs. Septimius Severus reduced the city to ruins, and then rebuilt it. The fourth crusade to the Holy Land, 1204, was diverted to the Bosphorus by the glamor of loot. That infamous expedition was led by Henry Dandolo, doge of Venice, who employed Genoese engineers to cut the chains stretched across the Golden Horn, and thus scaled the sea walls.

The Ottoman Turks, led by the conqueror, Mahommed II, 1453, entered the extreme point of the horn by carrying their boats overland. In the middle ages the walls of Constantinople were considered the strongest ever built by man.

Should Kemal thrust for Constantinople, in spite of Great Britain's hostility, he will probably operate from Scutari, as the allied fleets would prevent direct attack

WHAT TO DO WHEN BABY CANNOT SLEEP.

The baby that cries half the night does not cry for fun. It cries because it is not well. Almost all infantile ailments, including the pains of teething arise in the first place from stomach and bowel troubles. To induce sleep in a natural way, therefore, all that is necessary is set these troubles right, for which purpose Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, have been specially devised.

The first effect of the Tablets is to act gently and kindly on the bowels. Then they soothe the stomach, allay teething pains, and promote calm natural sleep, the baby waking up thoroughly rested and ready for its meal. In most cases the rapidity with which their good effects become apparent seems almost magical.

Baby's Own Tablets are guaranteed to contain not the minutest trace of any opiate, narcotic, or other harmful drug. They are equally harmless and helpful to the youngest infant as to the child of 6 or 8 years, and are a proved remedy for infantile constipation, colic, diarrhoea, simple fever, colds and worms.

Chemists sell Baby's Tablets, or post free at 60 cents the vial from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

U.S. WIRELESS TO BE GIVEN SUPPORT

(Reuter's Service)

Aida Delightful

Madame M. B. Tcherkasskaya, as Aida, delighted a packed house at the Lyceum last night in her first appearance here in an operatic role. Madame Tcherkasskaya has sung prima donna parts in the Petrograd Imperial Theater, La Scala at Milan, and the Grand Opera at Paris. She has appeared in concerts before the Shanghai public.

As an artist her greatest appeal is in her skilful acting, and faithful interpretation of the slave girl's tragic position. Madame Tcherkasskaya's Aida is always a slave girl, and not the queen as often portrayed by artists less faithful to the requirements of the part.

The dark red and blue dress she wore was the one in which she appeared as Aida before the then Emperor Nicholas. She also wore a white feather in her hair which heightened the Ethiopian tint she donned in her role of the slave.

Miss Burskaya made an imperial Anneris. Her range of voice, and majesty, assisted by the magnificence of her costume, made her an excellent daughter of the king, and a commanding sweetheart of Radames.

Mr. Danilоff, the tenor, sang the part of Radames with more feeling as the lover, than with military bravado as the conquering hero. The baritone role of Amonasro, the captive Ethiopian, was admirably sung by Mr. Panteleeff.

KINGMAN & BROS.
How to Preserve the Teeth

In order to keep the teeth in a good condition scientific precaution must be taken. Through negligence, decay and numerous other affections such as tooth-ache, dental periostitis esteo-periostitis, necrosis of the jaw, etc., may arise. During the process of ingestion, there are settled on the teeth, some deposits of mineral and organic matters, called tartar, which possesses a morbid power of pressing the gum. As an inevitable result of the presence of this tartar, the teeth will become elongated and movable and will, by degrees, absorb away the enamel, leading ultimately to the decay and degeneration of the teeth. The tartar is so hard and resistant to the process of brushing that it cannot be scraped off except with dental instruments specially devised for that purpose.

Dr. KINGMAN offers to the public his service for preserving their teeth at an annual subscription Fee of $10.00 per head to be paid in advance.

The work to be done by Dr. KINGMAN to the subscribers consists in:—

(1) Cleaning of the teeth quarterly
(2) Filing with gold platinum alloy only, when the teeth present holes.
(3) Inspecting the teeth at any time at the desire of the subscribers.

The Provincial Assembly Fallacy

BY JOSEF W. HALL

ONE of the fantastic schemes recently proposed in a town where such schemes have become so common as hardly to induce a smile, is the suggestion of a delegation of provincial assemblymen of several provinces —whose interests, of course, lie with the "outs" rather than the "ins" of the Peking Government —made to foreigners supposed to occupy a semi-official position in relation to the Legations. The proposition is that, inasmuch as the Peking administration has fully demonstrated that it is no longer deserving of recognition by the powers as a sister-government, these powers conduct their relations with the people of China directly through the Assemblies of the various provinces.

The idea appeals to those who labor under the fallacy that the Provincial Assemblies represent the people of China. Leaving aside the physical, diplomatic and practical difficulties of the scheme, and confining ourselves purely to the ethical phase, the pertinent question to be asked is: How convincing an argument do these assemblymen have that their bodies are any more deserving of recognition than the Peking administration which they condemn?

A few years ago the Provincial Assemblies were hopefully looked to as the nest-egg of democracy. They are still in the unhatched stage, but the egg has become exceedingly odoriferous.

Assemblies exist, in name, in all but one or two of the provinces of China. In a number they are in an entirely non-functioning state, similar to that of the Peking Parliament, the worthy assemblymen being out on an indefinite holiday without pay. In others, as in Shensi, they operate as a body of discussion without the temerity to enact statutes not directly proposed by the Tuchun and his ministers (called Commissioners). In other provinces they actually enact statutes and pass them up to the Civil Governor for enforcement. If these statutes escape the disapproval of the Tuchun, the Governor sometimes makes a show at their enforcement.

In only three provinces of the territory nominally subject to Peking are the Assemblies a serious factor in provincial politics. These are Shantung, Kiangsu and Chekiang. In these Assemblies the big guilds have at times had strong influence, and have been able, by working with political enemies, of the Tuchuns seriously to irritate the latter. Several Tuchuns and Governors of Shantung have stumbled over this rock. At the present time, however, the Tuchuns of these provinces have their Assemblies safely packed, and do not hesitate to adjourn the session if the control of the body by their puppets is threatened.

The Chinese politician usually opposes a new institution but if it be forced upon him he has a place ready for it in his system, and immediately finds a way to exploit it to his advantage. From their inception the Provincial Assemblies have been packed bodies of bribed political puppets. Elections have been placed on an undisguised mercenary basis, each election having its particular market price. The thing works in a lovely circle. Voters pay the magistrate for registry entitling them to ballot, candidates pay the voters for ballots, and expect to collect returns from the magistrates as blackmail against impeachment, and from the Tuchun, governor, or some political faction aiming at Peking. The writer observed one campaign in Shantung where the advertised market price of a vote was $500.

The common people naturally regard the assemblies as merely another of the exceedingly clever foreign-imported schemes for making money out of governing. They have no faith in the Assemblies and do not in any sense regard the Assemblymen as their representatives in the government. They are often more indignant against the Assemblies than the Tuchun, as the exploitation of the former is likely to fall more directly upon them.

As the pioneers of democratic government the Assemblies have despicably failed. As the connecting link between the people of China and the powers they would be not only in a false but a ludicrous position. Which does not help to solve the problem of foreign recognition.

After all, diplomatic recognition has not usually been regarded as a moral weapon to further the political progress of misgoverned peoples. Late attempts to use it as such, as Wilsonian idealism would have it used, have not proved eminently successful in accomplishing the benefit desired. Witness Mexico and Russia. The problem of diplomatic recognition of any clique holding forth to be the government of the Chinese people will always be determined according to the selfish interests of the recognising powers, and other considerations dragged into the issue are extraneous.

Anecdotes Of The Famous

The New South Wales Premier, the Hon. John Storey, tells a little conversation he had with the Prince of Wales in Australia:

"I want you to understand," said Mr. Storey to the Prince, "that you will have to be very careful here, because I am the head of tre Anarchist party."

To which the Prince replied:

"Oh, lor', is that so?" He added that he hoped he would meet a lot more Anarchists.

Booth Tarkington was once in Naples during an eruption of Vesuvius.

"Now, you've nothing like that in America, have you," exclaimed a proud Italian.

"No, we haven't," replied Tarkington, with a smile. "But we've got Niagara Falls, and they'd put the darned thing out in five minutes!"

THAT'S SMUTS

(The news created a sensation in London, the first opinions expressed being, "That's Smuts."—Reuter.)

There's a man who came to his country's call,
And struggled until he had given his all;
Then rose from defeat—where others would fall—
That's Smuts!

* * *

There's a man who fought in his country's cause
And lost! yet won! (for it isn't all wars
That add to the lustre of Freedom's Laws.)
That's Smuts!

* * *

There's a man, when his Empire was sorely tried,
Who called to his brothers to fight with pride
By the side of those whom they once defied.
That's Smuts!

* * *

Today there's a man who has won the trust
Of a world by the right of a sincere thrust,
Which pierces the dross and reveals what's JUST—
That's Smuts!

When a man steers a straight course, he finds at the end that he has the planet for his pedestal, whereas the wanderer finds he has only his shoes—and they are well worn.

Smuts has steered a straight course. He first came into the public eye, and a great deal too prominently to be pleasant for the public eye of England, when he fought for the freedom of his country, that gave life to his brothers the Boers. He was beaten, yet in his defeat he won for his country the heritage it desired.

Smuts knew this. He had fought and in the fight he had learned the truth.

When the Big War threw the world into chaos, Smuts knew his mind. He had fought for his country. He now fought for the Empire of which his country was a part. It was Freedom still that was his goal.

There's something about Smuts that wins confidence. He is a man with a sense of sympathy that feels instinctively the evil; he has the insight that sees the beam that is blinding unity; he has the faculty of appreciating a difficulty, and then knowing how to place the solvent.

That is why Londoners expressed their conviction that the Irish situation in its present brighter state was due to Smuts.

It is extraordinary how he has caught the confidence of the peoples of the British Empire. Like all great men he has won his place by giving without any thought of taking. All his abilities, mental and moral, have been at the service of his country and empire. All his gifts of sympathy and affection have been at the disposal of his fellow beings. He came to serve and not to be ministered unto. This is the secret of his appeal. Like a Clive, a Hastings, a Cornwallis, a Joseph Chamberlain—Smuts is a builder; an empire builder, building securely for those who are to follow after.

Smuts is a great man and knows it not. His aim is to so work that great men may be enabled to do great things, and not only think them. Men like Smuts are like the lamp posts that light up the Highway of Life. Sometimes the lamp posts are not seen, perhaps we are too near to them, but they spread their light in the dark places. Some day the world will see in true perspective how true what has been said of Smuts can also be said of Woodrow Wilson.

"The world is upheld by the veracity of good men: they make the earth wholesome," says Emerson.

It is the goodness and veracity of Smuts that today make him one of the triumphs of the British Empire.

"Yet, within the limits of human education and agency, we may say great men exist that there may be greater men. The destiny of organised nature is amelioration and who can tell its limits? It is for man to tame the chaos; on every side, whilst he lives, to scatter the seeds of science and of song, that climate, corn, animals, men, may be milder, and the germs of love and benefit may be multiplied."
—Emerson.

And men and women today say they know there are people who would realise this ideal, and one of them is Smuts.

Prescribing For A Sick Stream

(U. S. Public Health Service)

An intensive study of stream pollution with special regard to the establishment of a general plan by which any polluted stream in the United States might be purified at a minimum expense has recently been begun by the United States Public Health Service.

As is well known a polluted stream tends to purify itself, but its power in this direction depends on the amount and character of the original pollution, on the volume and speed of the current, and on the extent to which new pollution is added along its course.

The Service has selected for study the Chicago Main Drainage Channel and the Illinois River (which empties into the Mississippi), chiefly because all the primary pollution of this stream originates in Chicago and is accurately ascertainable, both as to amount and character. Analyses taken along the course of the canal and river will determine the degree and nature of the changes that take place in it. Where new pollution is added, its amount and character must be ascertained; and its effect on the old pollution learned. This last is important, for it is quite possible that sundry industrial wastes might neutralise each other or might destroy certain types of organic pollution.

Similar work was done on the Ohio River from 1914 to 1917; and the present study is to check the results obtained there.

The final object is to establish fundamental quantative relationships between bacteriological and chemical pollution of a stream on the one hand and basic principles, such as population, industrial wastes, stream flow, and prevailing temperature, on the other. These relationships, once established, will guide the sanitary engineers as "streamdoctors" in prescribing for a sick stream the sort of tonic required to restore it to health, and thereby make it available for human consumption or industrial purposes or both, as may be desired.

The work in Illinois is in immediate charge of J. K. Hoskins, Associate Sanitary Engineer of the U. S. Public Health Service, and is under the general supervision of Surgeon W. H. Frost.

Another step toward insuring travellers on interstate carriers against the evils of polluted drinking water was taken on April 15, when the laws already in force in regard to railway trains were extended, with necessary modifications, to steamships on lakes and rivers and between United States ports and ports of adjacent countries.

Henceforward water used on such vessels for drinking or cooking must be obtained on shore from a source approved by the U. S. Public Health Service, usually acting in co-operation with State health authorities, or must have been treated by a method approved by the Service. If not obtained ashore the water must be treated on board ship by an approved method.

All water-piping systems on shipboard are required to be so arranged that no connection can be made between the drinking water pipes and pipes for any other water system. Every tap or other source yielding water unsatisfactory in safety or quality is required to be marked by properly placed signs approved by the Public Health Service, stating that the water is unfit to drink.

By these regulations it is hoped to prevent outbreaks of typhoid fever and dysentery such as have occurred in the past when passengers were supplied with drinking water taken from badly polluted streams.

In 1585 it was recorded of the people over whom he ruled: "of their Tobacco we found plenty, which they esteeme their chiefe Physicke. The example of the Indian Tribes was followed by those who braved their savagery- soon, "the very streets of Jamestown were sown with Tobacco" till the enterprising ancestors of the House of Wills began to make their famous Cigarettes from Tobacco cultivated with more care than Indians ever dreamed of. SAN FRANCISCO BAY BRIDGE IS ENGINEERS' PLAN

(Reuter's Service)

San Francisco, June 18 (by mail).—San Francisco's "Chinese Wall" as some have called the waters of San Francisco bay which separates this peninsula city from the continential mainland of Alameda county, is to be crossed, according to plans announced here recently. All the plans call for a bridge across the bay, with one scheme proposing a tube to Yerba Buena Island, half way across, and a bridge the rest of the distance.

Bridging the bay would, it is claimed, bring closer together the city of San Francisco with the cities of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and other points on the continental side of the metropolitan area. Daily, hundreds of thousands of people, who live across the bay cross on the ferries and generally, on Sundays and holidays, the ferry systems cannot keep up with the crush of automobiles seaking passage across.

Engineers are discussing the type of bridge to be built. The proposal to utilise Yerba Buena island calls for a tube from the San Francisco side, a railroad around the island and a suspension bridge to the end of one long ferry pier already built. Another scheme is to cross the bay with a bridge over the shallow waters leading to the lower sections of the harbor.

Gustav Lindenthal, widely known eastern engineer, has drawn a set of plans for a proposed bridge, it was announced here, and A. J. Rich, San Francisco financier, has declared that the money for the bridge proposed by Lindenthal can be raised without difficulty.

Chambers of Commerce on both sides of the bay, together with the San Francisco Motor Car Dealers' Association are supporting the proposals.

Urges Hawaiians To Foil Grim Reaper

(Reuter's Service)

Honolulu (by mail).—Hawaiians, generally regarded as members of a fast dying race, may foil the efforts of the grim reaper to wipe them from the face of the earth and make of themselves a strong power in future history if they strive for sturdy mental, physical and spiritual development, according to Dr. H. E. Gregory, director of the Bishop museum here and an authority on the Polynesian peoples.

Dr. Gregory, who made this statement before a gathering of the Daughters of Hawaii, declared that the death or life of the race is "up to the Hawaiians themselves." He pointed to the Navajo population of 30,000. Dr. Gregory added:

"Other Polynesian people are increasing in number and civilisation, and there is no reason why the Hawaiians should not do the same if they can be brought to believe in themselves."

Troops Get Money But Expenses For Students Unpaid

In informing the students of the decision of the finance committee, the university authorities are said to have remarked that they were surprised to see that China could spend millions every year for troops and yet refuse to pay a sum of less than $20,000 per year for education of her own citizens.

The local Educational Association has brought the matter to the attention of the Ministry and urged the immediate remittance of the necessary funds.

The failure of the Ministry of Education to remit the expenses of Chinese government students who are expected to graduate from Hongkong University is causing the 20 students at the southern institution a great deal of uneasiness, according to a letter addressed to the Kiangsu Educational Association by the four students from this province, Shen Wei, Tsu Fu, Tung Chi-chien and Kuo Ping-wu.

The students have been informed by the administrative officers of the university, according to the message, that the university had not received any remittance from the Ministry of Education at Peking for two years and unless the money was forthcoming by November, the students shall have to return to China.

In 1918, an agreement was entered into between the Ministry of Education and the Hongkong University whereby China was to send 20 students to the university at an annual allowance of $850 each, which sum to be paid direct by the Ministry to the University. The four students from Kiangsu were chosen from Nanking Teachers' College.

57 Varieties Of American Indian Language Spoken

(Reuter's Service)

St. Paul, Minn., June 14 (by mail)—The American Indians are not decreasing in numbers, according to Mr. Elmer E. Higley, of Des Moines, who was recently appointed Superintendent of Indian Work of the Methodist Episcopal church, who is here attending the conference of American Indian missionaries.

"There are more than one-third of a million Indians in the United States," added Rev. Higley, "and fifty-seven distinct languages are spoken.

"A survey among the Indians has just recently been made by the centenary officials and shows that not only the full blooded Indians are increasing, but also the mixed bloods with better homes, medical attention, and better care of Indian babies and with the missionaries taking the gospel of soap, sanitation and salvation, the increase of the number of Indians will continue.

"Two-thirds cannot understand the American language. Thirteen percent of the Indians are afflicted with tuberculosis, and 80,000 suffer from trachoma. Three out of every five Indian children die before the age of five years.

Porto Rico Waits To Let Governor Help On Budget

(Reuter's Service)

San Juan, P.R., June 14 (by mail).—When Mr. E. Mont Riely, of Kansas City, Mo., recently appointed Governor of Porto Rico by President Harding, arrives here to take up his official duties, probably in July, he will find an interesting political situation brought about by the fact that the legislature, which was in session at the time of the announcement of his appointment, immediately took a recess without passing the Government Budget for the year which commences July 1. Neither did it pass tax bills which were under consideration and which are considered necessary to produce revenue for the Insular Government. The legislature is in control of the Unionist Party.

Apparently the legislative recess was taken with the idea that it would afford Governor Riely an opportunity to come to Porto Rico and participate in the framing of laws which will be enforced during the first two years of his term of office.

Although the Budget for the next two years has not been passed, this does not seem to be particularly worrying the legislature. If there is no new Budget at the end of June the Budget now in force will be continued for another year. The present Budget calls for an annual expenditure of approximately $8,000,000.

NO INCOME TAX

The income tax law which has been in operation during the past two years will become inoperative on July 1, unless a new income-tax law is passed, or the present law is re-enacted and there will be no income-tax for the year 1920, unquestionably the most prosperous year in the history of the island.

The Unionist leaders are far more concerned regarding the attitude of the new Government on appointments in the Departments than they are with legislation. With the exception of the offices of Auditor and Commissioner of Education, Unionists are at the head of every insular government department. Before proceeding to carry out a legislative program, the Unionist leaders want to know what treatment the party may except in the matter of further appointment by the new Governor.

Having had consideration from former Governor Yager the Unionists are not disposed to sacrifice any position of advantage which they may have attained.
